Dear Parishioners,

1. True to God's Word

The First Reading poses a puzzle that has bedevilled philosophers and theologians.

God commands Jonah to tell the people of Nineveh these words: Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed.

Now, the people of Nineveh believed that God's words are true, and they repented. And God was pleased with them for believing his words and repenting.

BUT—God's words seem to be false. At any rate, forty days after Jonah's telling the people God's words, the city is still standing. And so here is the puzzle: could God say words that are false, and could God be pleased with the people of Nineveh for believing a falsehood?

Philosophers and theologians have had a lot to say about this puzzle. But here is a simple thought.

When God's words call you, God puts your life at a cross-road. You can ignore him and continue stubbornly with your old life, as if God didn't really matter, or didn't really care what you did, or maybe didn't really exist at all. Or you can open yourself to God. You can respond to him with a willingness to trust and obey. But if you do this, you will be leaving your old life behind for a new life that might well have been unimaginable to you beforehand. You won't be who you were before. You will be a new person, in God and for him.

The people of Nineveh respond to God's call in this second way. They believe God's words and will to be obedient to God, and that is why they repent their former ways. As a result they become very different from the people they had been. The whole city becomes a very different city from the one it had been.

There are, then, two ways in which the Lord's words to Nineveh can be true. Nineveh can be destroyed either because God demolishes the city or because the people cease to be the Nineveh that they were. Either way, the old Nineveh will no longer exist.

Therefore, God's words to Nineveh were true. When the people of Nineveh responded to God's words with trust and obedience, they ceased to be what they were—and the old Nineveh was destroyed. God's words are always true, and God is always true to his word.

2. Bayswater Nursing Home

A new nursing home has opened in Abbotsford and has requested Ministers of Communion to visit residents. At this stage we are looking for one more person who can join the roster to visit this nursing home. Please let Fr Greg or the office know if you can help.

3. Fr Kelly - 60th Anniversary of Priesthood
Fr Kelly is celebrating his 60th Anniversary of Priesthood on the 4th March, 2018.

To celebrate, a Mass is being held at 9:30am at Our Lady of the Rosary Church, The Entrance. A bus has been organized to take interested parishioners to this Mass as a surprise for Fr Kelly.

The bus will leave All Hallows' at 7am sharp and return at approximately 2:30pm. If you would like to attend, please register at the parish office with a payment of $40, which includes the cost of the bus and a contribution towards a small gift for Fr Kelly. Morning tea is being provided by Our Lady of the Rosary church. Limited to 20 seats.

4. Parish Centenary

In January 2019, we will celebrate the parish's centenary.

One aspect of the celebrations will be a parish history, which will be titled 'An Australian All Hallows'.

We would appreciate everyone looking in their draws and cupboards for old photos of baptisms/confirmations, parish events, memorabilia, newsletters etc. Materials lent to the parish will be carefully kept and returned ASAP. We are interested especially in photos relating to the periods when Monsignor Peoples and Father Kelly were the Parish Priests, and also the Presentation Sisters conducted the school. Any photos of the original church and school would be wonderful.

Our researcher, Damian Gleeson, is keen to interview older parishioners, especially amongst the Italian community and also from Australian-Irish families. Damian has a link to our parish as his grandfather, Thomas was the Hon. Church Secretary from 1923-1968.

Please contact the Parish Office if you can help in any way as we document our vibrant parish's history. Thank you.

God Bless.

Fr Greg

Host Family Needed

Hi! We are an Italian Catholic Family with 3 kids (2 daughters and 1 son) and we are from Reggio Emilia, a small town 1 hour south of Milan, Italy. Our oldest daughter Chiara is 17 years old and we would like her to experience life and school in an English speaking country.

We are looking for a native English speaking family that will be available to host her. She will be on exchange 2 terms of Year 11 either from July 2018- January 2019 or from January 2019- July 2019 depending on the availability of the family. She will be coming with WEP Agency (www.wep.it).

We are not considering a reimbursement but she will be extremely helpful doing housework or babysitting the kids and helping them doing their homework.

If you are interested in doing this experience, please contact us at these email addresses: silvia.bertoni73@gmail.com (Chiara's Mum) and elisa_razzoli@yahoo.it or phone 0468906200 (Australia).

POPE'S COLUMN

Pope Francis urged youth on January 17, 2018, to use a simple test before acting: “What Would Jesus Do?”

His recommendation came in a talk to youth gather at the Shrine of Maipú in Santiago, a stop in his apostolic journey to Chile and Peru. He said the question, “What would Christ do in my place?” was the “golden rule” used by Saint Alberto Hurtado, whose tomb the Holy Father visited yesterday.

“You have mentioned it many times, young people must be the protagonists of the change, of a more just society, that worries about the weak, that appreciates the value of life, that may like the love of God in every brother and sister, born in our country or born on the other side of the world,” said one of the youth, Ariel Rojas, in a testimony before the Pope’s talk. “We recognize in you a model of life, a model of love, a model of the living Christ.”

And, indeed, Pope Francis urged the young people to be “protagonists in the heart of the Church.” He recommended the examples of the Good Samaritan, Simon of Cyrene helping Christ with his cross, Zacchaeus, who rejected the material, and Mary Magdalene, “who finds in Jesus alone the answers she needs.”

The Holy Father told the youth that in his ministry as a bishop, he had seen “how many good ideas there are in young people, in their minds and hearts. Young people are restless; they are seekers and idealists.” He admitted that adults sometimes fall back on how “things have always been done.”

Let me share a story with you. Chatting one day with a young man, I asked him what sort of things made him unhappy. He said to me: “When my cell phone battery runs down or I lose my internet connection”. I asked him: “Why?” He answered: “Father, it’s simple; I miss out on everything that is going on, I am shut off from the world, stuck. In those moments, I jump up and run to find a charger or a Wi-Fi network and a password to reconnect”.

This made me think that the same thing can happen with our faith. After a while on the journey or after an initial spurt, there are moments when, without even realizing it, our “bandwidth” begins to fade and we lose our connection, our power; then we become unhappy and we lose our faith, we feel depressed and listless, and we start to view everything in a bad light. When we lack the “connection” that charges our dreams, our hearts begin to falter. When our batteries are dead, we feel the way the song describes it – “The background noise and the loneliness of the city cut us off from everything. The world turns backward, tries to overwhelm me and drown all my thoughts and ideas”

Without a connection, a connection to Jesus, we end up drowning our thoughts and ideas, our dreams and our faith, and so we get frustrated and annoyed. As protagonists, which we are and we want to be – we can get to the point of feeling that it makes no difference whether or not we do anything. We start feeling that we are “shut off from the world”, as that young person told me. It worries me that, once they have lost their “connection”, many people think they have nothing to offer; they feel lost. Never think that you have nothing to offer or that nobody cares about you.

Never! That thought, as Alberto Hurtado used to like to say, “is the voice of the devil”, who wants to make you feel you are worthless... and to keep things the way they are. All of us are necessary and important; all of us have something to offer.
