Dear Parishioners,

1. The Image

In the Gospel reading, the Pharisees are trying to trap Jesus into saying something that can be construed as sedition against the Romans.

Jesus' answer calls attention to the fact that the common currency of the time was Roman and so had Caesar's image stamped on it. Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, Jesus says, and give to God what is God's.

The image of Caesar on the coin is an indication that the money is Caesar's. But the point of Jesus' line is also that each one of us is God's because each of us bears stamped in his soul the image of God. It is an honour and a glory to us, each one of us without exception, that we are in the image of God. But it is also an awesome responsibility.

When the face of a body is disfigured by self-indulgence in food or drinking or smoking, when the face of a soul is bent by envy or hatred or narcissistic possessiveness, the image of God in that person is warped. When others look at the face of that person, they will see only a distortion of God's image.

And so our sins ought to grieve us. Who wants to be a person whose soul shows a distorted image of God?

But the same line of Christ's that leads to such grief also gives the consolation for it. Just as Caesar's money belongs to Caesar, so we belong to God. We are his own. The God who made us in his image will not leave us in our sins. Through the redemption of Christ, God will make his image lovely in each one of us.

That is why Scripture says (Rm.8:29, 1 Jn 3:2) that when Christ comes again, each one of the faithful will be found in the image of Christ. We wait in hope for that time.

2. New Archbishop of Sydney

As previously advised by The Apostolic Administrator, Bishop Peter A Comensoli, the Liturgical Reception and Mass of Installation for the Most Reverend Anthony Fisher OP as the ninth Archbishop of Sydney will take place at St Mary's Cathedral on Wednesday, 12 November 2014 at 7.30pm. Those attending would need to be seated by 7.00pm. All are welcome.

3. November Mass Envelopes

During the month of November we pray for the Souls of all the faithful departed. The November envelopes can be found in the gathering space. Please return them to either Fr Greg, Fr Salas or place them in the First Collection plate.

Please print names as sometimes writing is difficult to read. We are hoping to have all envelopes returned by the end of October so the Remembrance Book can be completed by 1st November.

4. Greg's Grill

On Saturday 25th October the Community Garden team will organise Greg's Grill - a night of succulent food and community spirit. The evening will begin after the Vigil Mass and be held in the Parish hall. Flyers are available in the gathering space. Be quick, there is limited space.

All welcome. RSVP due by 23rd October.

5. Visiting Priest

On Saturday we welcome Fr Joshy Parappully who will celebrate the Vigil Mass. We are very grateful that Fr Josh can come in as I am conducting a wedding on Saturday afternoon and Fr Salas is away. Please make him feel welcome.

6. All Hallows Day

On Friday 31st October at the 9am Mass we will celebrate All Hallows Day with the school. Everyone is welcome.

7. Morning Tea

On Sunday 2nd November the PPC have organised a morning tea after the 10am Mass to celebrate our parish feast day. Please join us

God Bless

Fr Greg

The month of the Holy Rosary is October and this entire month is dedicated to the Rosary. The feast day of the Holy Rosary in particular is October 7th held in memory of the glorious and triumphant victory at the battle of Lepanto. That battle was the most convincing military victory that proved without a doubt the great power of the Rosary. The month of October is a good time to commit to praying the Rosary every day. The Rosary will bring great peace and holiness to your life. It is a powerful instrument for conversion. The Rosary is the best method of honouring Mary. Popes Pius XII, John Paul II and Francis consecrated the world to Mary in 1942, 1984 and 2013 respectively. It protects the Church from false teachings and keeps her safe from the attacks from the Enemy.

There are some great ways to celebrate the month of the Holy Rosary: Pray the everyday this month. Pray it especially for priests. Even though the Year For Priests has come and gone, they still need your constant prayers.

Make rosaries, have them blessed and give them away.

Invite a Pilgrim Virgin statue into your home and pray the Rosary every day.

Attend Mass on October 7th, the Feast of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary and on October 13th, the day of the final visit of Mary to Fatima.

Promote the Rosary through the social networks that you are part of.

POPE FRANCIS' COLUMN

Is Your Lamp Alight With the Oil of Faith?

Says Christian Hope Is Expectation of Lord's Coming and Fulfilment of Saving Plan for Human Family

Pope Francis on Wednesday encouraged the faithful never to lose hope, because Christian hope is not simply an optimistic desire, it is based on the fact that one day the people of God will be reunited with Him.

Speaking to the crowds gathered in St. Peter's Square for the weekly General Audience, the Pope's catechesis focused on the fulfilment of God's promises in the coming of Christ at the end of time, Vatican Radio reports.

Recalling the words of Paul the Apostle who comforted the Christian community of Thessalonica that was asking what were they to expect, Pope Francis said his words "Thus we will be with the Lord forever" are amongst the most beautiful of the New Testament.

They are not simple words – the Pope pointed out – and they carry with them such a dense message and such great hope. And asking those present to repeat the words together with him three times, he told the faithful to be credible witnesses of this hope.

Pope Francis also referred to the joyful encounter between the Lord and his people using the image of "the new Jerusalem, coming down from heaven, prepared as a bride adorned to meet her husband" (cf. Rev 21:2).

He said this spousal imagery contains a profound truth: by taking on our flesh, Jesus united humanity to himself, and at his coming we will see the consummation of this mystic marriage in the wedding feast of heaven.

The vision of the new Jerusalem – the Pope said - also reminds us that the Church is meant in God's plan to be a City in which all men and women live at last in harmony and blessed peace.

So – he said - Christian hope is our joyful expectation of the Lord's coming and the fulfilment of his saving plan for the human family.

In every generation the Church holds high the lamp of this hope before the world. Today – he concluded - let us ask whether our own lamps are alight with the oil of faith, and to what extent we live as credible and joy-filled witnesses to our hope in God's promises

BUSINESS MANAGER

The Marist Sisters Congregation Sector of Australia is seeking a Business Manager to commence in mid-January 2015. The role is part time approximately 30 hours per week and located in a quiet, supportive office environment at Hunters Hill.

The individual being sought will have initiative and good people skills, be financially competent with broad experience in office administration and proficient in MYOB and Microsoft Office software. The position covers a range of financial functions from planning and systems review to budgeting, financial reporting and asset management.

The Business Manager works in close collaboration with the Sector Bursar, is accountable to her, and through her, to the Sector Leader.

Applications close on 31 October 2014. Prior to lodging an application, interested candidates are asked to email Margaret Walker at business@maristsisters.org to request a position description.

Have a passion to make a difference in our world?
Want to discover ways to put your faith into action?
Are you aged 16 to 30? THIS IS FOR YOU.

Faith in Action: Social Justice Expo is your opportunity to engage with agencies and organisations working in justice and peace and explore ways you can get involved. On Nov 3 & 4, guest speakers will explore a justice topic from a Catholic perspective. The Expo on Nov 5 will feature exhibitors, live entertainment, food and competitions at the Courtyard of the University of Notre Dame, Broadway. Mass will follow the expo at 8:15pm at St Benedict's. More info & Free Registration at faithinactionsydney.com.
