Dear Parishioners,

1. What is the Temple?

In the First Reading, an angel shows Ezekiel the Temple in a vision. In the vision, the Temple is the source of life-giving water that sustains all creatures that come to it.

The Temple that Ezekiel saw has been destroyed for a long time. All that is left now of the last rebuilding of the Temple is one wall, the Western Wall in Jerusalem. It looks like this:

People come from all over the world to pray at this Wall. They put their heads down on those big stones, and the stones bring up out of their hearts their deepest sorrows and their most bitter tears. Even the stone remnants of the Temple are life-giving for them.

In the Second Reading, Paul tells us that each one of us is the temple of God. And in the Gospel reading, Jesus says that the true Temple is his body.

So, what is the Temple then?

The Jews have put up a sign near the Wall in Jerusalem to explain the Wall's sanctity. Their sign finishes this way: "God promised that his Spirit would never leave these stones. This is a holy place." What makes the Wall holy, and what made the old stone Temple life-giving, is that God's Spirit was and is in it, as God promised Solomon it would be. (1 Kings 9:3)

That is why Christ's body is a Temple, too. In Christ, the Spirit of God indwells Christ's human body. The presence of that Spirit is what makes Christ's body the Temple. What was there in the old Temple of stones has a new and more powerful incarnation in the body of Christ, and it gives eternal life to all those who come to it.

God's Holy Spirit comes to indwell in every person who comes to faith, too. And so every person of faith is also somehow the Temple of the Lord.

But notice that it is one and the same Spirit that is in each person of faith. And so all believers, taken together as the Church, make just one Temple, indwelt by the Holy Spirit. And that is why the Church is the body of Christ, which is the one true, life-giving Temple.

God's Spirit will never leave this Temple.

2. New Archbishop of Sydney

The Mass of Installation for the Most Reverend Anthony Fisher OP as the ninth Archbishop of Sydney will take place at St Mary's Cathedral on Wednesday, 12 November at 7.30pm.

The celebration will be proceeded by Sung Vespers in the Cathedral commencing at 7.00pm. You are requested to be seated prior to 7.00pm. All Welcome

3. Charitable Works Fund

Thank you to all who have given generously to the CWF Appeal. If you have taken home an envelope please return to Mass this weekend.

4. Thank you

A big thank you to the PPC for the morning tea held last weekend Sunday to celebrate our feast day, All Saints Day.

I would personally like to thank the team of Greg's Grill for putting on a great evening. It was enjoyed by many parishioners and we look forward to our next Greg's Grill.

5. Altar Servers

This week we are commissioning our new Altar Servers who have been preparing for many weeks. Thank you to them and their parents for their great support and we look forward to seeing them on the altar. New rosters will be available next weekend

6. Sacrament of Reconciliation

Over the next two Saturdays children from our parish will be celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please keep them in your prayers, that this will be a special time of grace in their lives.

7. New Appointment

Nice news for the parish I have received a letter from Bishop Peter Comensoli this week appointing Fr Andrew Kim SJ to the parish on a pro tem (temporary) basis. Fr Andrew will be joining us in the coming weeks. I'm sure he will be made very welcome at All Hallows Five Dock.

God Bless

Fr Greg

GREG' S GRILL

What a day, what a night. The weather was perfect and the first 'Greg's Grill' was a huge success. Over 120 parents, friends and children of the parish tucked into some succulent lamb and pork with some beautiful salads, desserts and fruits all provided by members and friends of the Community Garden.

Special thanks must go to Andrew Valerio who donated an entire lamb and sausages through the generous support of Cameniti's Butchery- Five Dock. Also the whole garden club, whether they were able to attend on the night or not still contributed to make the night not only possible but a huge success.

When you hear the words of Father Salas, "John, I think we need to have more nights like tonight, Greg's grill should be more often." I can't help but agree.

Thanks to everyone involved and if you want to be involved in the future, just leave your details with Elena at the Parish Office and no doubt we will find a job you can do.

God Bless,
John Velluti.

Christmas Giving

Christmas is fast approaching and if you would like to know how you can help those less fortunate at this time of the year the following are some suggestions:-

If you belong to the school these items have been assigned to each year

Kindi - Juice poppers

Year 1 - Boxes of fun pack chips

Year 2 - Deodorant for men

Year 3 - Cadbury chocolate (fun box size), bags of funsize share packs or blocks of chocolate

Year 4 - Bars of soap and face towels

Year 5/6 - Shampoo & Conditioners

If you belong to the parish we would love some light fruitcakes and bath towels to add to our hampers. Fruitcakes are available from Coles or Wool-worths for $4 - $5.

Please continue to drop off toiletries as well, as these are always necessary. All goods to be left at the Mini Vinnies tub.

A Gentle Reminder: please do not leave items other than those requested as they cannot be used

Sincerely
Carmen Pollifrone

POPE FRANCIS' COLUMN

Pope Francis: There's No Room in the Church for a Worldly Mentality

Describes the Role of Bishop As a Service and Not a Place of Honor During General Audience

During his weekly General Audience, Pope Francis entrusted himself and all bishops to the prayers of the faithful. Through their prayers, he said, "we can at least hope to be closer to the [acts of service] that the Apostle Paul advises for all bishops."

Encouraging the thousands gathered, he asked, "Do you agree? Will you pray for us?"

The Holy Father said that bishops must have many virtues, despite being "sinners."

Through the Holy Spirit's power and grace, he continued, "Christ does not fail to give rise to the ordained ministries, in order to build up the Christian community as His body."

The Pope said the role of the bishop, among these ministries, "stands out."

"In the bishop, assisted by priests and deacons," he said, "it is Christ Himself who is present and who continues to take care of his Church, ensuring his protection and guidance."

Through their presence and ministry, he declared, we can recognize the "true face" of the Church.

"She is our Holy Mother, the Hierarchical Church," he said. "And really, through these brothers chosen by the Lord and consecrated by the sacrament of Holy Orders, the Church exercises her motherhood."

"There should not be room in the Church for a worldly mentality," he continued. "A worldly mentality speaks of a man who has an 'ecclesiastical career and has become a bishop.'"

The 77 year old Pontiff went on to say that that the role of a bishop is not a place of honor but rather a service to others, following the example of the Good Shepherd.

It is sad, he said, when we see a man "who seeks this office and does all he can to get it and when he gets it does not serve, instead goes around like a peacock and lives only for his vanity."

Recalling the recent Synod of Bishops, the Pope noted that while the bishops came from different cultures and places, the meeting exemplified that bishops are "a single college."

He noted "how beautiful" it is "when the bishops, with the Pope, express this collegiality!"

More than just Christian communities recognizing the bishop as a "great gift," he stressed they are called to nurture a sincere and profound communion with him, starting with the priests and deacons.

"There is no healthy Church if the faithful priests, deacons are not united around their bishop," he underscored. "This Church not united around their bishop is a sick Church."

Concluding his address, Pope Francis said that the "relationship of each Church with the Apostles is visible and with all the other communities, united with their bishops and the Pope in the One Church of the Lord Jesus, that is our Holy Mother, the Hierarchical Church."
