Dear Parishioners,

1. Be Fruitful and Multiply

The first command God gave to human beings was "be fruitful and multiply" (Gen. 1:28). In the Gospel Reading, there is a kind of reiteration of this command. At any rate, the text describes the bad things that happen to people who are not fruitful.

In Genesis, the fruitfulness has to do with reproduction. It comes from union between a man and a woman, and it multiplies God's image in the production of children.

The fruitfulness at issue in the Gospel comes from connection too, but connection with Christ. It comes when Christ is in you, and you are in him.

This reciprocal being-in is a funny state of affairs, isn't it? You can put a bowl in a box, or you can put a box in a bowl. But the box can't be in the bowl when the bowl is in the box!

Boxes and bowls can't manage reciprocal being-in. But persons can, because of love. Love unites you and your beloved without either one of you losing your identity. The union of love is not a fusing; it is a mutual indwelling.

In the Gospel Reading, Christ says that he always remains in his own. So if you yield to Christ in love, you have what is needed for the mutual indwelling of love. You are your beloved's, and he is yours. (Song of Songs 6:3) There is joy in this love, because Christ is so much with you that he is in you. There is peace, too, because there is rest for the heart in having your beloved with you.

Your sins and the storms of life retain their power to afflict you. But you can more easily put up with things, even your own troublesome self, if your beloved is yours and you are his.

In that mutual indwelling, then, there is love, joy, peace, patience and longsuffering. But these very things are fruits of the Holy Spirit. When they grow in you, you are bearing fruit.

Finally, consider: is there a more powerful witness than a life lived in love, joy, peace, patience and long-suffering? If you have the fruits of the Holy Spirit in you, you will multiply God's image in others too. And so, by remaining in Christ, you are doing what will make you be fruitful and multiply.

3. First Communion Parent Meeting

On Tuesday 5th May at 7.00pm we ask parents of children preparing for First Holy Communion to meet in the Church. Children need not attend but we would like one parent to attend to receive all information in regards to the sacrament and organise the home meeting groups.

3. Charitable Works Fund (CWF) Appeal.

This weekend is the CWF appeal which continues to play an important role in providing social, pastoral, advocacy and training programs through its 6 agencies. The CWF is your Catholic charity and we encourage you to give it your generous support. Couples, families, refugees, migrants, our future priests, Catholic public school children, the deaf and hearing impaired are just some of the people you are helping by supporting the CWF. There is so much which can be done with your donations, so please give generously.

4. Mothers Day Mass

On Friday 8th May we will be celebrating Mass with the children of All Hallows. Mass will begin at 9.15am. All welcome.

God Bless
Fr. Salas

SHHHH...

We don't like to talk about these things yet they occur in every parish community, even at All Hallows. If reading this in church the person beside, in front or behind you could be affected. Perhaps it's your neighbour, friend or a relative. It could be man or woman, rich or poor, highly educated or barely able to read and write. When you discover what it is, you'll probably read no further. Why? You may think I am not affected by this, I'm not interested in such matters, or what does it have to do with me? What is this secret that in the main is kept hidden? Family and Domestic Violence.

Each week a woman was murdered at the hands of a partner or relative and families were destroyed last year. So far 30 women have been murdered this year due to family violence. People usually equate domestic and family violence as physical abuse however only a small part of such violence is physical. In fact coercive, controlling behaviour, unequal power in a relationship is abuse. Emotional control (relentlessly putting someone down) is abuse. Constant verbal (yelling, name calling) is abuse. Financial control is abuse. Being forced into social isolation is abuse. (i.e. not allowed to have friends, see family, leave the house.)

We have a responsibility to make social justice endemic in everything we do. Pope Francis wants us to go from maintenance to mission. This means to stop being complacent and maintain the status quo when we learn that something is happening. Instead we are to make social justice our mission.

This does not mean talk to the perpetrator of the crime and try and get them to change. This doesn't work. Or if a victim discloses information to you don't tell them, "Oh it can't be all that bad..." or the usual "Why don't you leave?" They need professional help. It takes seven attempts at leaving before a victim leaves for good. Also if in a situation yourself the abuse will only get worse no matter how many times your partner promises to change.

Don't turn a blind eye. Social justice is our responsibility. Refer victims to these numbers:-

1. 1800 737 732 (24 hour help phone line)
2. 1300 130 052 (Parent Line a Catholic line for abuse, parents counselling etc.) open Mon-Fri from 9am-9pm and weekends 4pm-9pm
3. 1800 656 463 NSW Domestic Violence helpline (24 hour, 7 day per week)
