Dear Parishioners,

1. Shame and the Lord

In the Gospel Reading, Jairus wades fearlessly into the crowd around Jesus and interrupts whatever Jesus is doing. Jairus is an important person, an official of the synagogue; and his twelve-year old daughter is dangerously sick.

Jairus believes that Jesus could heal his daughter, but only if he comes right away. And so Jairus urges Jesus to drop everything and come.

And Jesus does turn immediately to go with Jairus. But then Jairus's interruption of Jesus is itself interrupted. Jesus stops dead and demands to know who touched him.

"Who touched you?" his disciples say in disbelief. Everybody touched you! You are in the middle of a big crowd pressing all around you.

But, as we know, there was someone who touched Jesus in a special way. She was a woman who had suffered from an issue of blood for twelve years, just as many years as Jairus daughter had been alive.

Under Mosaic law, she was unclean all that time. Anyone who touched her was unclean. In fact, anyone who touched anything she sat on or slept on was unclean. She had spent all her money on doctors, but they only made her worse.

So she was poor, outcast, and scared of being noticed. Unlike Jairus, she didn't dare interrupt Jesus to press her own concerns on him. And now she had added this dreadful thing to all the others: she had made even Jesus unclean. She had touched him. No wonder she was trembling when she had to face Jesus. Shame such as hers makes a person desperate to be invisible.

In her great need, she had not been willing to put herself forward, as Jairus had done. She was willing to be shamed, no-account, unnoticed—as long as she could be healed. But Jesus was not willing to tolerate her own estimation of herself. He made the official of the synagogue wait for her. "Daughter," Jesus says to her, "your faith has saved you."

In that one word, 'daughter,' Jesus healed her shame as well as her blood-flow. He showed her and all the crowd around her that she was to him what Jairus's daughter was to Jairus.

And so Jairus was not the only one who cared for his daughter on that day.

2. Greg's Grill

A reminder flyers are available in the gathering space for Greg's Grill, which will be held on 18th July. Please return slip and payment to the parish office by 11th July for catering.

3. Communion

Thank you to all those involved in making our First Communion Masses so special, especially to our Family Choir, Sacramental Team, Teachers, catechist and parents.

A reminder to group leaders to return their home tubs to the parish office as soon as possible.

4. St Vincent's de Paul Winter Appeal

This weekend a speaker from St Vincent's de Paul Five Dock Society will address the congregation in regards to their annual winter appeal. Envelopes for the appeal will be handed out at the end of Mass and we ask they be returned next week.

5. Healing Mass

The anointing of the sick will be held on Friday, 3rd July at the 9am Mass.

6. Eucharistic Ministers

Thank you to all those people who have shown interest in becoming Eucharistic Ministers in our parish. Our next training session will be run on Tuesday 30th June at 7.00pm in the church. The session will run for approximately one hour.

7. End of Financial Year

As the 30th June is creeping towards us I remind parishioners looking for a tax deduction that Planned Giving through the envelope system is 80% tax deductible, while supporting the parish and school. To take advantage of the tax deduction donations need to be received by 30th June.

As you can see next years envelopes are available for collection in the gathering space and receipts will be available after 30th June.

Thank you for all your support and for those who would like to join the planned giving envelope system, please see Elena in the parish office

8. Sebastian Hew

We welcome Sebastian who will be staying in the presbytery for the coming week. I'm sure he is looking forward to catching up with many of you.

God Bless

Fr. Greg

Grounding the Sacred through Literature and the Arts

A conference and post-graduate seminar
Australian Catholic University
25A Barker Road, Strathfield NSW
Thursday 23 – Sunday 26 July 2015

Registration is now open for this conference, which explores the interplay between the arts and the sacred. Featuring speakers from around the world, the conference is of general, as well as academic, interest. Virtuoso recorder artist Genevieve Lacey will interweave her playing with reflections on the nature of the sacred in music. Vivien Johnson will speak to an exhibition of Indigenous art. David Malouf will be in conversation with the noted British scholar David Jasper. Sister Kathleen Deignan, recent president of the Thomas Merton Society, will speak (and respond to questions) from New York via Skype. Imam Afroz Ali will speak on Islam and the expression of the sacred and Michael McGirr will celebrate the poetry of Jesuit poet Peter Steele. Other program highlights are on the conference website, <http://www.acu.edu.au/groundingthesacred>

This conference will be remembered for years to come as an event that generated powerful insights into the ways in which the arts can help us access the sacred. Registration by 8 July is encouraged, via the website. Inquiries to Elaine.lindsay@acu.edu.au or michael.griffith@acu.edu.au

POPE'S COLUMN

Pope: No Life Is 'Less Worthy' of Being Lived

During Visit to Disabled in Turin, Recommends Learning a Different Way to Look at Life

During the first day of his two-day trip to Turin, Pope Francis stopped this afternoon to spend about an hour with sick and disabled persons, saying it is a "grave social sin" to consider that some lives are less worthy of being lived than others.

Out of respect for the patients, the Pope's visit to the Little House of Divine Providence was not televised. The center is known as the "Cottolengo" from its founder, Giuseppe Benedetto Cottolengo, a canon of the Corpus Domini Church of Turin.

Vatican Radio provided some excerpts from his address:

The exclusion of the poor, and the difficulties they face in receiving necessary care and assistance, is a situation that is unfortunately still with us today. Great progress in medicine and social assistance has been made, but it is diffused in a culture of waste, as a consequence of an anthropological crisis that puts consumption and economic interests in first place, rather than man. Among the victims of this culture of waste I want to recall in particular the elderly, who are welcomed in large numbers in this house. Their longevity is not always seen as a gift from God, but sometimes as a difficult weight to bear, especially when health is highly compromised.

Developing "antibodies" and learning to see things differently

This mentality does not bode well for society, and it is our duty to develop "antibodies" against this way of looking at the elderly or people with disabilities – as if their lives were less worthy of being lived. With what tenderness, instead has the Cottolengo loved these people! Here we can learn another way of looking at life and at the human person.

The example of Cottolengo

From it we can learn the concrete reality of evangelical love, so that many poor and sick people can find a home, live as a family, feel that they belong to a community, and not be excluded, and supported.

Precious members of the Church

Dear brothers who are sick, you are precious members of the Church, you are the flesh of Christ Crucified, who we have the honour to touch and to serve with love.

The Gospel, the raison d'être of Cottolengo

The raison d'être of this Little House is not welfarism or philanthropy, but the Gospel: the Gospel of the Love of Christ and the strength that bore it and that carries it forward: the special love of Jesus for the most fragile and the most weak.

The charism of Cottolengo is fruitful

It's charism is fruitful, as Blessed Don Francesco Paleari and Blessed Brother Luigi Bordino, as well as the servant of God, the missionary Maria Carola Cecchin, have shown.
