Dear Parishioners,

1. Shepherding

The Lord is my Shepherd, Psalm 23 (Responsorial Psalm) says, but there are human shepherds, too. In the First Reading, God thunders against the human shepherds who are failures at shepherding.

Who are these miserable shepherds, these failures, with whom God is so indignant?

Well, you can tell who they are by what God is angry at in them. They are the human beings who have not cared for the sheep, who are God's people.

And how have they not cared for the sheep? They have not helped the sheep get nurture; they have driven the sheep away. They have led the sheep in wrong directions. They have scattered the sheep, so that instead of being one flock, the sheep were divided against each other into diverse small groups.

So think about it this way.

Do you lust for someone who is not your spouse? Do you think you are caring for one of God's children when you do? Do you smoke and overeat? What impact do your bad habits have on God's children? Is there no one of God's people who will grieve over you when you get sick? Do you laze around and waste your gifts by doing nothing? Do you spend your time on foolish, frivolous things that help nobody? Do you think you are caring for God's people when you do? Do you gossip and undermine the reputation of others? Do you sow discord in your neighborhood, in your church, in your family? Are you a divisive presence in your community? Do you think you are caring for God's children when you are?

Surely no one of us is so benighted as to suppose that God's thundering against miserable shepherds is meant only for priests who aren't good enough. That thundering is a warning for each one of us. Every person has many of God's children in his care. The woman who empties your trash at work, the child in the row behind you who kicks your seat, the annoying non-stop talker at your dinner table, your old and highly inadequate mother, your very imperfect spouse - each of these is one of God's children, and each of them is in your care, a little or maybe even a lot.

We shepherd with our Shepherd, whose grace we need to shepherd well.

Grounding the Sacred through Literature and the Arts

A conference and post-graduate seminar
Australian Catholic University
25A Barker Road, Strathfield NSW
Thursday 23 – Sunday 26 July 2015

Registration is now open for this conference, which explores the interplay between the arts and the sacred. Featuring speakers from around the world, the conference is of general, as well as academic, interest. Virtuoso recorder artist Genevieve Lacey will interweave her playing with reflections on the nature of the sacred in music. Vivien Johnson will speak to an exhibition of Indigenous art. David Malouf will be in conversation with the noted British scholar David Jasper. Sister Kathleen Deignan, recent president of the Thomas Merton Society, will speak (and respond to questions) from New York via Skype. Imam Afroz Ali will speak on Islam and the expression of the sacred and Michael McGirr will celebrate the poetry of Jesuit poet Peter Steele. Other program highlights are on the conference website, <http://www.acu.edu.au/groundingthesacred>

This conference will be remembered for years to come as an event that generated powerful insights into the ways in which the arts can help us access the sacred. Registration by 8 July is encouraged, via the website. Inquiries to Elaine.lindsay@acu.edu.au or michael.griffith@acu.edu.au
