

26th July 2015 - Year B

17th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

ALL HALLOWS' PARISH CHURCH

2 Halley Street
FIVE DOCK 2046

Dear Parishioners,

1. What do you need?

The hand of the Lord feeds us, the Psalmist says; the Lord answers all our needs. In fact, the Psalmist says, the Lord satisfies the desire of every living thing.

Is the Psalmist blind? Or is he a shameless liar? The whole earth is soaked with the tears of the suffering. How many people suffer when their desire is satisfied? How many people cry when their needs are met?

But here we might pause to consider: what actually are our needs? If I say that I need red shoes to complement my outfit, are red shoes a need of mine? Ridiculous thought, isn't it?

A need is something without which we cannot live, in one sense or another. But anybody can live without red shoes. Food, water, clothing, shelter—these are our needs, because without them we will die.

But these are not our only needs, are they? We need education, too. And that's not nearly all. We need the beauty of nature and of art. And what are these to us if we can't share them? We need company as well. We need love most of all.

And so we need more than food and shelter to live. We need truth and beauty, love and care, too. That is because there is more than one way to die. We can die in the body, but we can also die in our minds and hearts. A person adequately fed and sheltered but deprived of love will wither away.

In fact, the needs of the soul are primary. As long as they are met, even the death of the body cannot kill us. As the martyrs of the Church show us, a person can die in the body and still live, as long as his soul is nurtured and sheltered by the love of the Lord.

The Lord himself is our greatest need, then. And, whether we feel it or not, our deepest desire is for the Lord too. Whatever we get, we will drown in disappointment if we do not get Him.

And that is why the Psalmist concludes by saying that the Lord is near to all who call upon him. Even in our worst suffering, what we most greatly need and desire, the Lord himself, is always at hand for us. The hand of the Lord feeds us till we want no more.

3. Family and Marriage Sunday

This weekend the Archdiocese of Sydney will celebrate Family and Marriage Sunday when newly-weds, those about to wed and many who have been married 40 years or more join together to give thanks and pay tribute to marriage as one of the cornerstones not only of the family but of society. Let us pray for all the married couples that they may be united and be faithful to one another.

4. Greg's Grill

Greg's Grill was a terrific night with delicious food, great company and wonderful music. A big thankyou to John Velluti and The Parish Pastoral Council for all their hard work ensuring the night was a great success.

5. End of Financial Year

Receipts for Planned Giving are available in the gathering space. Thank you for supporting the Church and School.

6. Jan Daisley

Many of you would know Jan Daisley who attend the Saturday Vigil Mass each week. Jan has just published her 3rd book. I have read Jan's first two books and can recommend them as a great read. If you would be interested in obtaining a copy of Jan's new book please follow the link.

7 Year Olds Raise Money for the Homeless

During the week Father Salas had the absolute pleasure of attending Abbotsford Public School's weekly Assembly. Two students, Sarah Carmody and Adrian Pietrobon both in Year 2 (ably assisted by Sarah's sister Lauren, a preschooler) set up a fresh lemonade stall during the recent school holidays. Charging 50 cents per glass to local residents they collected $15 for the homeless.

They wanted to immediately head for the city to personally hand it to them. Sarah's wise nonna Nancy (ex-All Hallows Lollipop lady) suggested they hand it to the Rose Gallagher Project which is about homeless adolescents. Father Salas recognised their initiative, compassion and generosity by presenting them with merit certificates.

celebrate the One
Year to WYD with GRACEFEST!

A night of Praise and Worship which draws over 200 young people every year!

This Year we are extremely excited to have our very own Archbishop Anthony give the catechesis on the WYD Theme "Mercy". Once again we will Adore our God and be led in worship by Stephen Kirk and the Graceband. Reconciliation will be available throughout the night provided by the priests that will accompany us on our WYD journey and NET will inspire us with testimonies and dramas.

If you are thinking about/are excited/haven't even heard about WYD, then Gracefest is for you!

Meet fellow pilgrims and begin the journey NOW!
