Dear Parishioners,

1. True Humility

In the Gospel Reading, Jesus censures people who take the seats of honour at a feast. Take the least honourable places, he tells them, and then the host can invite you to a more honourable place.

Jesus is rebuking the pride of those people who go for the honourable seats. But what is the solution to the problem of pride? If you race your friends to the least honourable seat because the reward for doing so is that you get one of the best seats, isn't this pride too?

So what is true humility? Well, think about pride.

There is a childish kind of pride, of course, where you brag about your accomplishments while everybody else tries to be polite enough not to roll their eyes while you are talking.

And then there is also the grown-up version of that childish pride, the pride of the self-made man. A multi-millionaire who explains that he has gotten where he is all by himself has this kind of pride. He has failed to notice all the gifts he has been given that have helped him get where he is. He thinks he himself is responsible for the good he has.

A more complicated kind of pride can be found in a person who knows that all his good comes from the grace of God. But he is sure that God has given such grace to him and not to his neighbours, because God knew that he, unlike his stupid worldly neighbours, would make good use of God's gifts. This is the pride of a prig.

Finally, the worst and most sophisticated kind of pride is found in the Pharisee who thanked God that he was not like other men, especially not like that sinner, the publican, praying next to him in the Temple. The Pharisee knew that every good in him was a gift from God. But he was glad that he had God's gifts and that the publican didn't. The Pharisee liked looking down on the publican.

Here is what humility is, then. It is recognizing that every good in yourself is a gift from God and is meant to be given back to the Lord by being shared with others.

So you can't get true humility by racing for the least honourable seat. If the least honourable seat is, in the Lord's view, the best place to be seated, then true humility requires your sharing it with others in gratitude to the Lord who gave it.

2. Piety Stall

Our piety stall is a great asset to our church. It would be great to have the piety stall manned at each mass.

If anyone can help for 10min before and after mass, it would be greatly appreciated.

Please see Franca or call the parish office if you can lend a helping hand.

2. Musician needed

Anyone who is a Keyboard player & would love to join the Saturday vigil choir to accompany them at mass. Please call Maria on 0408121288 for details.

3. Priest Retirement Fund

The Priest Retirement Fund collection is being held this week. This offers a way for us to give back to our Catholic priests who have served us so faithfully. Your contribution will help archdiocesan priests live modestly and peacefully in retirement. Help us offer thanks for their years of devotion to God and our communities.

4. Archdiocesan Catechist Mass

The Annual Archdiocesan Catechist Mass is being held on the 29th September at St Mary's Cathedral.

This year Linda Palamara, Wendy Volpatti and Denise Pettenon, are receiving recognition for their 40 year service, and Rosetta Pozzer is receiving a Certificate of Accreditation Award. These ladies volunteer their time weekly to spread the good news of the bible to our local public primary schools.

We thank Linda, Wendy, Denise and Rosetta for their service and support of the parish. This rewarding ministry is always looking for new helpers. Please contact the parish office for more information.

5. All Hallows' 100th Anniversary Gala Dinner
After our weekend masses on 7 & 8 September and 14 & 15 September, we will be selling tickets for our Centenary Gala Dinner will be held on Saturday 2nd November.

The tickets sold over these two weekends, will be at the earlybird rate of $90 per person. The earlybird rate expires on Sunday 15 September. Payment can be made by cash or credit card. Alternatively, please call the Parish Office on 9713-7960, to purchase your tickets.

It is sure to be a great night!

God Bless

Fr Matthew

As outlined in last week's Bulletin, the Catholic Church in Australia is about to begin Phase 2 of the Plenary Council 2020. This time, we will consider, in small groups of parishioners, one of the six themes identified from the data collected from the Listening and Dialogue groups, late last year.

Phase 2 of Plenary 2020 will involve discerning as a group, ways in which the theme that we choose, might be implemented in a practical way. Fundamental to this Phase is that we again be open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, who since the first Pentecost, continues to inspire, enlighten and guide the Church, through all its members.

There will be resource material made available to each group and, as happened in Phase 1, each group will have a facilitator responsible for collecting the contribution of each group. Further information and snapshot reports relating to each of the six themes, can be found at:
plenarycouncil@sydneycatholic.org OR contact Ann Kerley 0408 720 461

If you are interested in joining a group, or being a facilitator, and putting forward your ideas, please complete the slip below, tear off and place in the box which will be at the rear of the Church. Those who participated in Phase 1 of Plenary 2020, are encouraged to participate in this process which is vitally important for the whole church in Australia.

POPE'S COLUMN

Pope to Christians: We Must Continue Commitment to Witnessing Jesus

In Message to Waldensian-Methodist Synod, Francis Reminds as Christ's disciples, We Can Offer Common Answers to Sufferings that Afflict So Many. Let's continue our commitment to witnessing Jesus...

Pope Francis' desire was expressed in a telegram, signed by Vatican Secretary of State, Cardinal Pietro Parolin, on the Pope's behalf, to the Methodist and Waldensian (Valdese) churches yesterday on occasion of their annual Synod in Italy this week.

In the telegram, the Pontiff expressed his spiritual closeness to the participants and his greetings. The Holy Father assured them of his prayers, that they "will be able to have a living experience of the Holy Spirit, who animates and gives force to Christian witness."

The Holy Father prayed to the Lord "for the consolidation of the ecumenical spirit among Christians, as well as for a growing communion between our Churches."

"We are called," the Holy Father said, "to continue our commitment in the way of mutual knowledge, understanding and collaboration, to witness Jesus and His Gospel of charity."

"As Christ's disciples," Francis encouraged, "we can offer common answers to the sufferings that afflict so many people, especially the poorest and weakest, thus promoting justice and peace." Pope Francis concluded, expressing to their Synod his best wishes and, invoking the Lord's blessing, he asked them to pray for him.
